

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

VICE-RECTOR'S BULLETIN

FACULTY OF ARTS AND SCIENCE

MAY 1979 - BULLETIN NO. 8

---

This is the final Vice-Rector's Bulletin for the 1978/1979 academic year. Please take note that the Convocation Ceremonies for the Faculty of Arts and Science will take place on Sunday, June 10, at 2 p.m. on the Loyola Campus.

The next Vice-Rector's Bulletin will be published in late September. Deadline for submission is September 10, 1979.

Have a good Summer!

Don Taddeo Jr

DR. PALMER ACHESON (TESL CENTRE)

- presented a paper entitled "Cohesive Devices in Children's Literature" at the 13th Annual Convention of the International Organization of Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL), in Boston, Massachusetts on March 1, 1979.

DR. GEOFFREY ADAMS (Department of History)

- presented a paper entitled "Light From The West: American Influence on the Campaign for French Protestant Emancipation, 1767-1788", at the Ninth Consortium on Revolutionary Europe held at Charleston, South Carolina on March 2, 1979.

DR. SYED AHSAN (Department of Economics)

- will be presenting the following papers at the Eastern Economic Association meetings in Boston, Massachusetts (June 10-12, 1979):
  - i) "The Arrow Theorem and the Public Investment Criteria";
  - ii) "Incentive Effects of Income Taxation in a Labour-managed Dual Economy".

DR. ZALMAN AMIT (Department of Psychology)

- had the following articles accepted for publication:
  - i) "Acetaldehyde: A positive reinforcer mediating ethanol consumption", in H. Begleiter (Ed.), Alcohol Intoxication and Withdrawal, Vol. IV, Plenum Press: New York, 1978, (co-authored with G.E. Rockman, B. Smith and S. Amir).
  - ii) "Examination of the role of tetrahydroisoquinoline alkaloids in the mediation of ethanol consumption in rats", in H. Begleiter (Ed.), Alcohol Intoxication and Withdrawal Vol. IV, Plenum Press: New York, 1978, (co-authored with Z.W. Brown, B. Smith).
  - iii) "The role of acetaldehyde in ethanol tolerance and dependence", in Acetaldehyde: Biochemistry & Neurochemistry, Elsevier, North Holland, 1978, (co-authored with S. Amir and Z.W. Brown).

- iv) "The effects of acute chronic naloxone administration on motor activation in the rat", in Neuropharmacology, 1978, (co-authored with S. Amir).
- v) "Differential effects on conditioned taste aversion learning: Peripherally and centrally administered acetaldehyde" in Neuropharmacology, 1978, (co-authored with Z. Brown and B. Smith).
- vi) "Disruption of taste aversion learning by pretreatment with diazepam and morphine", in Pharmacol, Biochem. Behav., 1978, (co-authored with Z. Brown and B. Smith).

DR. F. ANTOLIN (Department of Modern Languages and Linguistics)

- presented a paper entitled "Un ejemplo de narrativa postrevolucionaria: Cofino Lopez", at North Eastern Modern Language Association on March 30th 1979, at Trinity College, Hartford, Ct.

DR. PAUL BABARIK (Department of Psychology)

- published an article entitled "The buried Canadian roots of community psychology", in the Journal of Community Psychology, April 1979.

DR. ROSLYN BELKIN (Department of English)

- published an article entitled "Prisoners of Convention: Ibsen's Other Women", in The Journal of Women's Studies in Literature, March 1979.

DR. FREDERICK BIRD (Department of Religion)

- will present a paper entitled "Parameters and Paradigms for the Comparative Study of Religious Ethics", at Session I of "The Comparative Study of Religious Ethics: Towards Defining a Discipline" which is part of the Program for the Canadian Society for the Study of Religion, May 25, Saskatoon.

DR. D.E. CHARLTON (Department of Physics)

- published the following papers:
  - i) "Microdosimetry of radioactive nuclei incorporated into the DNA of mammalian cells" in the Proceedings of the 6th Microdosimetry Congress, Brussels, 1978, Harwood Academic Published Ltd. (in collaboration with J. Booz, J. Fidorra, Th. Smit and L.E. Feinendegen).

FACULTY ACTIVITIES ...

4.

- ii) "Microdosimetry of  $^{125}\text{I}$  and  $^3\text{H}$  in the cell nucleus: Radiobiological Implications", in the Proceedings of the 14th Annual Meeting of the European Society for Radiation Biology, Julich, October 1978, (with the collaboration of J. Booz, J. Fidorra and Th. Smit.).

PROFESSOR CHARLES DAVIS (Department of Religion)

- will present a paper entitled "Tradition and Reason in Comparative Religious Ethics", at Session I of "The Comparative Study of Religious Ethics: Towards Defining a Discipline" which is part of the Program for the Canadian Society for the Study of Religion, May 25, Saskatoon.

DR. H.S. de ROMER (Department of Geology)

- i) has been appointed to a 5-man Study Committee of the Council of Universities to report on the status of geology and engineering geology in Quebec. He is representing the universities' sector.
- ii) will conduct in the Eastern Townships two geological excursions as part of the Geological Association of Canada convention at Quebec City in May.

DR. MICHEL DESPLAND (Department of Religion)

- will present a paper entitled "Early Modern European Problems in Comparative Religious Ethics", at Session II of the "Comparative Study of Religious Ethics: Towards Defining a Discipline" which is part of the Program for the Canadian Society for the Study of Religion, May 26, Saskatoon.

DR. PIETER de VRIES, (Department of Sociology and Anthropology)

- reviewed an article entitled "Towards and Anthropology of Tourism?" which will be published in the CSAA Review (Canadian Sociology and Anthropology Association).
- participated in a Symposium on Agrarian Systems at the recent meetings of the Canadian Ethnological Society in Banff, Alberta. He presented a paper entitled "The Effects of Tourism on Marginalized Agrarian Systems: West Indian Perspectives", February 1979.

DR. T. GRAY (Department of Psychology)

- had an article entitled "Sudden, rapid acquisition of conditioned suppression" accepted for publication in Animal Learning and Behavior, 1979.

DR. STEPHEN S. HLOPHE (Department of Sociology and Anthropology)

- i) had a book entitled Class, Ethnicity and Politics in Liberia, published by the University Press of America, Washington, D.C.

and presented the following papers:

- ii) "French-Canadian Missionary Involvement in Development in Southern Africa: The Case of Quebec in Lesotho", at the 5th Annual Third World Conference in the Conrad Hilton Hotel, in Chicago, March 28th - 31st, 1979.
- iii) "The Relevance of the Marxist Class Analysis in the Study of the Liberian Social Formations", at the Eleventh Annual Conference of the Liberian Studies Association held at Howard University, Washington, D.C., April 5th-7th, 1979.

DR. W.R. HOOPER (Department of Psychology)

- on two different occasions, he participated in a three-day seminar on motivation and leadership in the educational environment, given to Catholic School Board principals and vice-principals.

DR. WILLIAM HUBBARD (Department of History)

- i) published an article entitled "Wirtschaftliches Wachstum und Sozialer Wandel in Graz, 1850-1914", in 850 Jahre Graz, 1128-1978, ed. W. Steinboeck (Graz-Loeln: Styria, 1978), pp. 381-398.
- ii) presented a paper entitled "Occupational Classification and Social Structure in nineteenth-century Austria", at the Annual Convention of the American Historical Association, San Francisco, 28 dec. 1978. A version will be published in QUANTUM Information (Cologne).
- iii) was elected to the Quantification Committee of the Conference Group on Central European Studies.

DR. M.N. ISLAM (Department of Economics)

- i) presented a paper entitled "An Interaction Model of the Inter-sectoral and Interregional Employment in Canada, 1961-1978: A Cross-Spectral Analysis", at the Fifteenth Annual Conference of MVEA held at Saint Louis, Missouri, March 2, 1979.
- ii) will present a paper entitled "Impacts of Intersectoral Occupational Migration on Interregional Disparity in Canada", at the Third Annual Conference of the Canadian Regional Science Association to be held at Victoria, B.C., May 31 - June 1, 1979.

DR. JOHN D. JACKSON (Department of Sociology and Anthropology)

- participated in a panel-discussion on "Perspectives on Linguistic Group Identity and Conflict", at the University of Guelph on March 26, 1979.

DR. ERNEST JOOS (Department of Philosophy)

- participated in a symposium on Philosophy in Canada, which took place at the University of Ottawa, March 9 and 10, 1979. He also presented a paper entitled "A Past without a Future or a Future without a Past"?

DR. N.N. KAPOOR (Department of Biology)

- published an article entitled "Osmotic regulation and salinity tolerance of stonefly nymph Paragnetina media", in J. Insect Physiology, Vol. 25: 17-20.

DR. NATALIE KYRIAZIS (Department of Sociology and Anthropology)

- i) presented a paper entitled "Minority Groups Status and Fertility" at the Université de Montréal, March 29, 1979.
- ii) will publish a paper entitled "Sequential Fertility Decision-Making: Catholics and Protestants in Canada", in the Canadian Review of Sociology and Anthropology, August 1979 (16:3).

DR. R. LAMBERT (Department of Psychology)

- an article entitled "North America's first graduate program in the psychology of sensory deficiency" has been accepted for publication in Canadian Psychology.

DR. GUY LECAVALIER (Department of Sociology and Anthropology)

- published a book review on Henry Aubin, "Les vrais propriétaires de Montréal", Editions de l'Étincelle, 1977, was published in the Canadian Review of Sociology and Anthropology, Vol. 15, No. 2, 1978.

MR. DOMINIQUE LEGROS (Lecturer, Department of Sociology and Anthropology)

- i) presented a paper entitled "Social inequalities as a correlate of bilateral cross-cousin marriage among XIXth century Tutchone Indians of the Yukon", at the Canadian Ethnology Society/Société Canadienne d'Ethnologie, February 1979.

- ii) was elected President-elect of the Canadian Ethnology Society/
Société Canadienne d'Ethnologie, February 1979.

DR. JACK LIGHTSTONE (Department of Religion)

- will present a paper entitled "Problems and New Perspectives in the Study of Early Rabbinic Ethnics", at Session III of the "Comparative Study of Religious Ethics: Towards Defining a Discipline" which is part of the Program for the Canadian Society for the Study of Religion, May 27, Saskatoon.

DR. DAVID MILLER (Department of Religion)

- will present a paper entitled "A New Approach to the Study of Hindu Ethics", at Session II of the "Comparative Study of Religious Ethics: Towards Defining a Discipline" which is part of the Program for the Canadian Society for the Study of Religion which will be held on May 27, Saskatoon.

DR. G.S. NEWSHAM (TESL Centre)

- presented the following papers:
  - i) "ESL in Canada", at the Ontario TESL Conference, November 1978 (with Dr. P. Acheson).
  - ii) "A New Look at Old Typologies", at the TESOL Conference, Boston, March 1979, (with Carol Fraser).

DR. JOHN E. O'BRIEN (Department of Communication Studies)

- i) served as a member of the UNDA Jury at the International Television Festival of Monte Carlo where outstanding dramatic, news and public affairs programs were entered from around the world.
- ii) participated in a working consultation in March on "Politique de développement des médias communautaires", a document issued by the Ministère des Communications.
- iii) was awarded a grant in the amount of $15,000 by the Department of Communications in Ottawa to direct a seminar on "New Developments in Local Programming within the Canadian Broadcasting System".

DR. C.B. O'KEEFE (Department of History)

- presented a paper entitled "Montazet, Archbishop of Lyons, and his Jansenist advisors, 1770-88", at the meeting of the American Society for Eighteenth Century Studies, in Atlanta, April 18th 1979.

DR. D. OTCHERE (Department of Economics)

- i) will publish an article entitled "A Model of International Reserves-Expenditure Behaviour: The Case of Ghana (1956-1975)", in the Journal of Modern African Studies (funded by a CASA grant).
- ii) will present a paper entitled "Impact of Credit Card Use on Consumer Expenditure Behaviour: The Case of Canada (1965-1978)", at the Fifth Annual Convention of the Eastern Economics Association, May 10-12, 1979, Boston, Mass.

DR. B.C. PANT (Department of Chemistry)

- published the following papers:
  - i) "Electrical Characterization of Pressure-Induced Phase Transitions", in Science and Technology, Vol. I, (1979), pp. 227-237, (with B.A. Lombos and H.M. Mahdaly).
  - ii) "Germanium - Annual Survey Covering the Year 1975", in J. Organometallic Chemistry Library, Vol. 6, 1978, pp. 251-309.
  - iii) "Preparation of Symmetrical and Unsymmetrical Diorganotellurium Dichlorides Using Organolead Compounds, in Synthesis and Reactivity in Inorganic and Metal-Organic Chemistry, 3 (1979) (with V. Kumar, P.H. Bird).
- iv) was appointed Chairman CIRA Users Group for 1979.
- v) attended and chaired the meeting at Pittsburgh Conference on "Applied Spectroscopy and Analytical Chemistry", Cleveland, Ohio, U.S.A., March 2-8, 1979.

DR. DESIREE PARK (Department of Philosophy)

- will present a paper entitled "On taking Ideas Seriously", to the International Berkeley Society at the Berkeley Commemorative Conference in Newport, Rhode Island (28th to 30th of September 1979).

DR. ROBERT M. PHILMUS (Department of English)

- i) chaired the session on "Utopias & Utopian Fiction" at the 14th annual conference of the Canadian Association for American Studies, Montreal, October 26-28th, 1978.
- ii) published a review of Robert Bloom's "Anatomies of Egotism in Studies" in Studies in the Novel, 10 (1978), 358-60.

DR. GAIL PFLASTER (Department of Psychology)

- i) an article entitled "Mirror, mirror on the wall ...?" has been accepted for publication in the Journal of Speech and Hearing Disorders, May 1979.
- ii) presented a paper entitled "Factors related to academic performance of hearing impaired children in regular classes", at the A.G. Bell Association for the Deaf Conference.
- iii) served on the Review of The Valta Review.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR J. ROSSNER (Department of Religion)

- will present a paper entitled "Relevance of Research in States of Human Consciousness to Issues in Comparative Ethics", at Session II of the "Comparative Study of Religious Ethics: Towards Defining a Discipline", which is part of the Program for the Canadian Society for the Study of Religion, May 27, Saskatoon.

DR. LIONEL SANDERS (Department of Classics)

- presented the following papers:
  - i) "Dionysius I and the validity of the hostile tradition", to the History Department of Tel Aviv University on March 20, 1979.
  - ii) "Magonid Politics 410/9 B.C.", to the annual meeting of the Classical Association of Israel at Haifa University on March 27, 1979.

DR. L.A. SERBIN (Department of Psychology)

- presented the following papers:
  - i) "Environmental control of sex-related behaviors in the preschool", at the Society for Research in Child Development, biennial meeting, March 1979, San Francisco, (with J.J. Connor).
  - ii) "Effect of sex of model and model and observer characteristics on preschoolers attention, recall and imitation", at the meeting of the Association for Women in Psychology, Dallas, Texas, March 1979 (with C.C. Citron).

FACULTY ACTIVITIES ...

- iv) was appointed to the Editorial Boards of Sex Roles, March 1979, and of Behavioral Assessment, February 1979.

DR. MORRIS SHAMES (Department of Psychology)

- an article entitled "On the metamethodological dimension of the 'Expectancy Paradox'" has been accepted for publication in Philosophy of Science.

DR. PETER SHIZGAL (Department of Psychology)

- presented a paper entitled "Behavioral methods for inferring anatomical linkage and conduction velocity in pathways connecting self-stimulation sites", to the Physiological Psychology Group, at McGill University, February 13, 1979 and to the Physiological Psychology Group, at the University of Toronto, March 5, 1979.

DR. L.P. SINGH (Department of Political Science)

- published a book on Power Politics And Southeast Asia, Radiant Publishers, 1979.

DR. JOSEPH SMUCKER (Department of Sociology and Anthropology)

- reviewed a book entitled Bureaucracy or participation: the logic of organization by Bengt, Abrahamson, in Sociology: A Review of Books, Vol. 5, 1977-1978.

DR. J. TRESIERRA (Centre for Interdisciplinary Studies)

- i) a paper entitled "For as long as the sun rises and the river runs ... the case of the Amerindians" has been accepted for inclusion in the programme of the XLIII International Congress of Americanists which will be held at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver, August 10-17, 1979.
- ii) has chaired a panel discussion entitled "Latin America: Dimensions of Neo-Colonialism", at the Fifth Annual Third World Conference at Governors State University, Chicago, March 28-31, 1979.
- iii) presented a paper entitled "Political Aspects of the New International Economic Order", at the Twelfth Congress of the Inter-american Planning Society, in Guatemala, April 1-6, 1979.

FACULTY ACTIVITIES ...

DR. J.R. UFFORD (Department of Chemistry)

- presented a paper on "The relationships between industry and Canadian university Departments of Chemistry" at a Unesco Conference in Toronto on university-industry interactions, December 1978, (co-authored with Dr. R.R. Martin, Department of Chemistry).

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GAIL VALASKAKIS (Department of Communication Studies)

- i) has been elected to a three-year term on the Governing Council of the Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research.
- ii) attended the Society's fifth Annual Conference in Mexico City.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR B. WARDY (Department of Classics)

- an article entitled "Jewish Religion in Pagan Literature during the Late Republic and Early Empire" has been accepted for publication in Aufstieg Und Niedergang Der Romischen Welt.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR KATHERINE WATERS (Department of English)

- presented a paper on "Women Poets of Canada: Isabelle Valancy Crawford and Dorothy Livesay", to the Women's Arts Society of the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts on March 13, 1979.

DR. W. WEST (Department of Psychology)

- had an article entitled "North America's first graduate program in the psychology of sensory deficiency" accepted for publication in Canadian Psychology (in press).

DR. ROY WISE (Department of Psychology)

- i) chaired a symposium on "Catecholamines as Neuromodulators" and presented a paper entitled "Neuromodulators as the substrate of motivation", at the Winter Conference on Brain Research, January 1979.
- ii) published an article entitled "Independence of cocaine sensitization and amygdaloid kindling in the rat", in Physiology and Behavior, 1979, 22, 545-551.

FACULTY ACTIVITIES ...

- iii) gave a colloquium at Merch Frosst on "Psychological factors in drug abuse research".

DR. R.H. ZIENIUS (Department of Chemistry)

- published an article entitled "A Survey of the Teaching of Analytical Chemistry in Canadian Universities", in Chemistry in Canada, March 1979, pp. 9-12. The complete report upon which this article is based was published in a limited edition in September 1978 by the Analytical Chemistry Division of the Chemical Institute of Canada.

DR. J.P. ZWEIG (Department of Psychology)

- was elected as an honorary life member of the Canadian Psychological Association.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR M.E. VERTHUY (Principal of the Simone de Beauvoir Institute)

- was chosen by the 10e Salon de la Femme as one of the female personalities of the year. More specifically she was selected for her contribution to the field of education. The jury for the 10e Salon de la Femme chose ten women who contributed to the betterment of the status of women and who were equally outstanding in their respective fields of interest.